DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSARY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it is naturally followed that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can. Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitome of Medicine, says of it: "I, not long since had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonia (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Several physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With this it was a guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonia unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence." "Golden Medical Discovery" not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpelide in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair-vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is do they eradicate dandruff and stop falling hair? No, they do not. But Herpelide does. Herpelide goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the follicle from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newell's Herpelide stands the "test of use." It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from all oil or grease. Sold by leading druggists. Send for a sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Fight with a Burglar.

George L. Marshall, Brooklyn representative of a Baltimore soda water firm, after withstanding chloroform and a blow from a sandbag, relieved a burglar of all the tools of his profession and put him to flight yesterday. When the burglar took his departure the victorious Marshall found in his possession, besides a revolver, a sandbag, a jimmy, a screwdriver, a brace and bit, an electric flash lamp, a bottle of chloroform, an ounce of red pepper, a handkerchief and a mask. There was also an umbrella. The odor of chloroform, instead of deadening Marshall's senses, aroused him to find the burglar bending over him in his home, in Brooklyn. It was early in the morning, and the man as soon as Marshall moved whispered, "I'll put a bullet in you if you stir."

"You will, eh?" responded Marshall, as he jumped up and seized the fellow by the throat.

The next instant he fell back on the bed, dazed from a blow over the head with a sandbag.

Mrs. Marshall, who awoke with a scream, was hit also with the sandbag and remained unconscious.

The burglar then began to search for booty, but he had reckoned without Marshall who recovered, and, springing on the man, brought him to the floor. For fully 10 minutes the pair rolled over and over in the struggle, but Marshall never lost his grip, and eventually wrested the revolver, the butt of which was being used on his head, from the burglar.

From the bedroom they rolled to the kitchen, and by this time Marshall had his man down the stairs, but he managed to gain his feet and wrench himself free, saving Marshall the trouble. With all the light out of him, the burglar half ran and half tumbled down the stairs and made his escape.

Marshall yelled from a window and fired shots, which aroused all his neighbors and brought a score of neighbors to the scene, but no trace of the burglar was found.

Mrs. Marshall, who was more frightened than hurt, had by this time regained consciousness.

Killed Wife at Her Request.

In a calm and natural voice, Julian Pavlinic, a native of Austria, who has been in America nine years yesterday stood in front of the desk in police headquarters at Newport News and informed the officials on duty that he had killed his wife at her request and that her body could be found at his home in Elizabeth City county. In his hand Pavlinic carried a small pistol, which he deposited upon the sergeant's desk.

Sergeant Mitchell, who was on duty, thought the man crazy, but he showed no signs of it. Chief Reynolds came into the station and the man told him the story of the crime. "After killing her with this pistol," he declared, "I shrouded her and cleaned up the house and then came here to give myself up. You remember my wife was sent to the Williamsburg Asylum from Newport News about two years ago. She was discharged last February and I brought her back to my home. She made me promise that if ever she went crazy again and would have to be sent back to the asylum I should kill her. Well, about 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning she woke me by choking me. She was insane again. She quieted and told me to remember my promise. In a few minutes she became violent again. Then she dropped off to sleep. I then went to the bureau, and taking this pistol, shot her seven times. I then sat down and saw her die. She lived 10 minutes after I shot her."

Asked if he realized the consequences of his crime, Pavlinic said that he did and that he wanted to die. He said that he did not want to take his own life. The man has been turned over to the Elizabeth City county authorities for trial. Mrs. Pavlinic was a native of Germany. The couple had lived at Newport News for eight years.

Ousted for Her Stockings.

Had pretty Mrs. E. J. Long worn black stockings or a longer skirt the sign announcing her profession as a clairvoyant would still be swinging from a handsome suit in the Lytle Block, in Sioux City, where her office had been. But she wore white stockings and a short skirt, so she had been asked by the managers of the block to move. The block is occupied largely by physicians and lawyers. There is no elevator and the stairs are steep. Three hundred men climb these stairs every day, and Mrs. Long went up these stairs at least twenty times a day, skirt in hand.

Finally the men informed the manager they could stand the sight of those milk white stockings no longer. The manager told Mrs. Long to go. She demanded to know the trouble. "Well, if you wish to know," the manager answered, "it's because the men object to your white stockings, and every one will move if you don't."

Mrs. Long burst into tears, locked herself in her room, and next day moved.

A good complexion is impossible with the stomach out of order. If pasty sallow people would pay more attention to their stomachs they would have better complexion. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA will digest what you eat and put your stomach back right in shape to do its own work. Kodol relieves palpitation of the heart, flatulence, sour stomach, heart burn, etc. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King St.

PAINS AMERICAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF

The Case of Miss Irene Crosby is One of Thousands of Cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that it is not the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely.

Thousands of American women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs these periods of their terror.

Miss Irene Crosby, of 313 Charlton Street, East Savannah, Ga., writes:

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a true friend to women. It has been of great benefit to me, curing me of irregular and painful periods when everything else had failed, and I gladly recommend it to other suffering women."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulency), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising women free of charge. Thousands have been cured by so doing.

Jealous of Mother.

Society circles in Chicago were surprised Saturday by the announcement that Mrs. Charles Purcell, wife of the millionaire maltster, had separated from her husband after twenty-six years, and had accepted a cash payment of $45,000 in lieu of divorce proceedings. Mrs. Purcell, who is now living at a hotel, says: "I agreed not to sue for divorce, and, in any contingency, not to mention the name of my mother in such a suit."

Her mother is Mrs. William C. Gray, widow of the editor of the Interior, official organ of the Presbyterian Society. She is 65 years old, tall, dignified and white-haired. Mrs. Purcell intimates that her husband lavished too much affection upon her mother. The Grays are relatives of the late Senator Brice, of Ohio, and also of Whitelaw Reid, United States Ambassador to England.

Mrs. Gray said yesterday: "The kindest thing that I ever saw about my daughter is that she is the victim of hallucinations. There is positively no truth in the charges she makes against me."

Keep your bowels regular by the use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. There is nothing better. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
